

Tim Hunt

3rd Baseman

Timothy Michael Hunt

August 4, 1974-April 26, 2014

Nickname: Timmy

Married December 16, 2013
to Anjanett Hunt

A power-hitting third baseman, Hunt batted .476 in 2000, still a single-season school record, and was named the team MVP and the Jim Bertelsen Award. Hunt was also awarded the Chargers' Chuck Adamson Award, presented to the player "who exhibits a genuine love for the game." Hunt later played three seasons of independent professional baseball before turning his attention to fast-pitch softball, where he was a member of Team USA in 2007, playing on a team that finished second at the World Cup of Softball.
