

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

The 2015 WBSC World Men's Softball Championship Host Committee, in conjunction with Softball Canada is pleased to announce a media conference introducing Canada's final roster for the 2015 WBSC World Men's Softball Championship

You are invited to our media conference to announce this special event and all the details surrounding it.

Wednesday June 3, 1:30pm in the Courtyard Room in the Saskatoon Inn

Team Canada Head Coach John Stuart will be here for the announcement of the 17 players that will represent Canada at the WBSC World Men's Softball Championship. From the Athlete pool of 20 he had chosen 7 and this weekend had a final look at the last 13 before making his final decision.

Canada has rich tradition in men's softball winning the second most world championship medals of any country. This year's squad will be again be medal favorites in both competitions.
