

Kevin Herlihy To Lancaster

LANCASTER, CALIF. - Tom Morris, popular owner of Chameleons of Lancaster, told The Bulletin Dec. 28, that Kevin Herlihy, one of the best pitchers ever turned out of New Zealand, has signed on with his team for the 1983 season. Herlihy was with Saginaw, Mich., Bolters last season. Herlihy will join up with Jimmy Smith to give the Chameleons a pitching tandem that could "go all the way" in 1983. Morris said that Bill "Yogi" Jochum, standout infielder and hitter, last year with Madison, Wis., Farm, also has joined the Lancaster team. Mr. Morris also spearheaded drive to host the California Pan-American tournament last fall at Lancaster and Palmdale.

More Than 200 ASA Umpires-in-Chiefs Will Meet in Tulsa

OKLAHOMA CITY, OKLA. (By Bill Plummer, Communications Director of ASA) — More than 200 ASA state and metro umpires-in-chiefs from throughout USA will be in Tulsa, Okla., Feb. 18-20 to attend fifth national rules seminar and U-I-C clinic at Aheraton Inn Skyline hotel. Tom Mason, ASA national rules interpreter and chief clinician; Merle Butler, former national supervisor of umpires, and staff members, will conduct the 2-day seminar to highlight rule interpretations, umpire school mechanics, administering a local umpire program, and comparison of ASA and high school rules. The seminar will conclude with banquet Saturday evening. Also, there will be a special program for umpires' wives, handled by C. Tillman Ryser, Tulsa commissioner and wife Mary Sue.

MILT STARK
ISC Executive Director

New ISC Director Well Qualified

ANAHEIM HILLS, CALIF. — The executive director of the International Softball Congress, Milt Stark, is well qualified to assume reign of this international fastpitch organization. Following the death last August of Carrol Forbes, founder and director since 1950, Mr. Stark, the ISC's secretary, was named by the ISC commissioners to fill the post and serve until next election, which is to be held next August in Bakersfield, Calif., where the ISC's world tournament will be staged. maximum 44 official delegates was not in attendance. (Yukon Commissioner John Erickson had to sit this one out because of an appointment with doctor.) The event was superbly organized by Softball Newfoundland under chairmanship of Keith Nickel and Softball Newfoundland, President Bill Abbott. The event took place at Hotel Newfoundland... Softball Canada's new constitution calls for election of president and two vice presidents for a 2-year term and treasurer and two vice presidents for 1-year terms. Elected for a 2-year term were President Bob Van Impe over Nels Rissling, Vice President Paul Dawson, no opposition, and Vice President Glenn Reeve over Ron Witkowski. For Bob Van Impe it is his 15th term as president of Softball Canada. He also is (On Page 5)
