

Timothy Lyon

2005 United States Olympic Committee
Developmental Coach of the Year

2012 United States Olympic Committee
Developmental Coach of the Year

2016 ISF Junior Men's World Championships

4 Wins and 3 Losses

5th place finish

Beat Australia for first time since 1997

Second place in pool (4-1)

2014 ISF Junior Men's World Championships

7 Wins and 4 Losses

Most wins by USA Team since 1985

5th place finish and consolation Champions

Beat Japan 4-2, first time since 1981

The 2001 team lost to Japan 21-1 in 3 innings, we have come a long way

2012 ISF Junior Men's World Championships

5 Wins and 3 Losses

5 and 1 in pool play

Finished in 5th place

Beat New Zealand 5-4 in Pool Play

Lost in first playoff game to Argentina 8-5 in front of 8,000 fans

First playoff round for USA since 1985

2008 ISF Junior Men's World Championships

4 Wins and 5 Losses

5th Place Finish

2005 ISF Junior Men's World Championships

4 Wins and 4 Losses

5th Place Finish

2001 ISF Junior Men's World Championships

2 Wins and 7 Losses

2000 ISF Men's World Championships

Bronze Medal

Last time the USA Men have won an ISF Medal

1998 Pan Am Qualifier, Men's

Silver medal

Former Players now coaching NCAA softball

Michael White - Texas

Mike Lewis – Virginia Tech

Jonathon Lynch – Central Methodist

Kevin Castillo – Long Beach State

Ryker Chason – Ole Miss

Collin Hopkins – Western Illinois

Anthony Aresco – Lamar

Christian Conrad – Arizona

Brad Kilpatrick – Florida

Bryce Tekluve – Texas Tech

1990 ASA Class C National Champion

First Team All American

Three time ASA All American as a player

This is the reason I love to coach.

To work with the players, teach them about only softball but also life lessons. The pure joy of seeing a young players smile and enjoy the moment they are in together.

